FROM: Jim Oliver, Director

In response to your request for a Fiscal Note on Senate Joint Resolution No. 24 (proposing a constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping corrections institutions) this office has determined the following:

The resolution proposes a constitutional amendment which, if adopted, would authorize the Legislature to issue general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new corrections institutions. The proposed amendment would be submitted to voters on May 6, 1989.

The cost of publication of the resolution to the State is estimated to be $60,000.

Since the amount of bonds that would be issued is not known, additional fiscal implications to the State or units of local government cannot be determined.

proposing a constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping corrections institutions, youth corrections institutions, and mental health and mental retardation institutions and for restoration of the State Capitol and the General Land Office Building.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Article III, Section 49-h, of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding Subsection (c) to read as follows:

(c)(1) The legislature may authorize the issuance of up to $330 million in general obligation bonds, in addition to the amount authorized by Subsection (a) of this section, and use the proceeds of the bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new corrections institutions, mental health and mental retardation institutions, and youth corrections institutions and for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of those institutions.

(2) The provisions of Subsection (a) of this section relating to the review and approval of bonds and the provisions of Subsection (b) of this section relating to the status of the bonds as a general obligation of the state and to the manner in which the principal and interest on the bonds are paid apply to bonds authorized under this subsection.

SECTION 2. Article III of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding Section 49-i to read as follows:

1       Sec. 49-i. (a) The legislature may authorize the issuance
2 of not more than $160 million in general obligation bonds and the 3 use of the bond proceeds for the restoration of and improvements to 4 the State Capitol and the General Land Office Building. The 5 legislature may require the review and approval of the issuance of 6 the bonds and the projects to be financed by the bond proceeds.
7 Notwithstanding any other provision of this constitution, the 8 issuer of the bonds or any entity created or directed to review
9 projects may include members or appointees of members of the 10 executive, legislative, and judicial departments of state
11 government.

12       (b) The legislature may provide for the investment of bond 13 proceeds and may establish and provide for the investment of an 14 interest and sinking fund. Income from the investment shall be 15 used for the purposes prescribed by the legislature.

16       (c) Proceeds from the sale of the bonds, the interest and 17 sinking fund, and income from the interest and sinking fund may be 18 expended without further appropriation.

19       (d) Bonds issued under this section constitute a general
20 obligation of the state. While any of the bonds or interest on the 21 bonds is outstanding and unpaid, there is appropriated out of the 22 first money coming into the treasury in each fiscal year the amount 23 sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds that 24 mature or become due during the fiscal year, less any amount in the 25 sinking fund at the end of the preceding fiscal year that is 26 pledged to payment of the bonds or interest.

1       SECTION 3. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the 2 voters at an election to be held November 7, 1989. The ballot
3 shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the
4 proposition: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the

In Re: Committee Substitute for Senate Joint Resolution
No. 24

FROM: Jim Oliver, Director

In response to your request for a Fiscal Note on Committee Substitute for Senate Joint Resolution No. 24 (proposing a constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping corrections institutions, youth corrections institutions, and mental health and mental retardation institutions) this office has determined the following:

The resolution proposes a constitutional amendment which, if adopted, would authorize the issuance of $330 million in general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new corrections institutions, mental health and mental retardation institutions, and youth corrections institutions and for major repair and renovation of existing facilities of those institutions. The proposed amendment would be submitted to voters on November 7, 1989.

The cost of publication of the resolution to the State is estimated to be $60,000.

The resolution would be implemented by legislation such as Senate Bill No. 558 with fiscal implications as follows:

The probable cost of implementing the provisions of the bill during each of the first five years following passage is estimated as follows:

Fiscal Year	Probable Debt Service Payments Out of the General Revenue Fund
1990	$ 8,250,000
1991	24,750,000
1992	31,850,000
1993	31,850,000
1994	31,850,000

Similar annual costs would continue through the year 2010. Total payout for the bond issue would be approximately $670,061,250.

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

BILL ANALYSIS

By: MCFARLAND (Hightower)
BY: HIGHTOWER

SJR24
CSSJR24

BACKGROUND

In 1987, the voters approved an amendment to the Texas Constitution authorizing the issuance of up to $500 million in general obligation bonds, backed by the full faith and credit of the state, for construction of prisons, youth corrections facilities, and mental health facilities. See, Art. 3, Sec. 49-h, Tex. Const., and Art. 601d-1, Revised Statutes. Under the General Appropriations Act for the current biennium, approximately $276 million of that authorized was used to finance the current construction of over 10,000 prison beds by the Department of Corrections, $18.8 million was used to finance construction and renovations at Youth Commission institutions, and $41.2 million was issued for renovations to state mental health facilities.

Based on recent projections, the prison system population, if unchecked and unaltered by alternative strategies, would need 85,000 beds by mid-1995. Additional funds are needed for the construction of new corrections institutions to accommodate the estimated 18,500 bed shortfall.

PURPOSE

As proposed, CSSJR24, along with its implementing legislation, SB558, would amend Article III, Section 49-h, of the Texas Constitution, and allow the Legislature to authorize the issuance of up to $400 million in general obligation bonds in addition to amounts previously authorized, and appropriate the proceeds to the Texas Department of Corrections for use in acquiring, constructing, or equipping new corrections institutions.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

It is the Committee's opinion that this bill does not grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution or agency.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS

SECTION 1: Amends Article III, Section 49-h, Texas Constitution by adding Subsection (c) which authorizes the issuance of up to $400 million in general obligation bonds in addition to the amount previously authorized and to use the proceeds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new corrections institutions. Provides that provisions of this section relating to the approval and status of bonds, and to the manner in which principal and interest are paid, apply to bonds authorized under this subsection.

SECTION 2: Requires the proposed constitutional amendment to be submitted to the voters at an election held on November 7, 1989. Requires the ballot to provide for voting for or against the proposition. Provides language to be used on the ballot.

SUMMARY OF COMMITTEE ACTION

Pursuant to suspension of the five-day posting rule, the Committee met in a public hearing held on May 25, 1989. Rep. Hightower, the House sponsor, offered testimony on the bill. A committee substitute was offered and adopted by the full Committee. The full Committee voted to report SJR24 to the full House as substituted with the recommendation that it do pass by a record vote of 8 ayes, 0 nays, 0 pnv, 1 absent.

COMPARISON OF ORIGINAL BILL TO SUBSTITUTE

SECTION 1: Changes the bond issuance from $330 million to up to $400 million.

SECTION 2: Deletes issuance of $160 million of G.O. bonds for the restoration of the State Capitol and General Land Office Bldg. in the original bill. This section in the substitute becomes the section that allows the voters to vote on the proposition November 7, 1989.

FROM: Jim Oliver, Director

In response to your request for a Fiscal Note on Senate Joint Resolution No. 24 (proposing a constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping corrections institutions) this office has determined the following:

The resolution proposes a constitutional amendment which, if adopted, would authorize the Legislature to issue general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new corrections institutions. The proposed amendment would be submitted to voters on May 6, 1989.

The cost of publication of the resolution to the State is estimated to be $60,000.

Since the amount of bonds that would be issued is not known, additional fiscal implications to the State or units of local government cannot be determined.

S.J.R. No. 24

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing a constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping corrections institutions, youth corrections institutions, statewide law enforcement facilities, and mental health and mental retardation institutions.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Article III, Section 49-h, of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding Subsection (c) to read as follows:

(c)(1) The legislature may authorize the issuance of up to $400 million in general obligation bonds, in addition to the amount authorized by Subsection (a) of this section, and use the proceeds of the bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new corrections institutions, mental health and mental retardation institutions, youth corrections institutions, and statewide law enforcement facilities and for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of those institutions.

(2) The provisions of Subsection (a) of this section relating to the review and approval of bonds and the provisions of Subsection (b) of this section relating to the status of the bonds as a general obligation of the state and to the manner in which the principal and interest on the bonds are paid apply to bonds authorized under this subsection.

SECTION 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the voters at an election to be held November 7, 1989. The ballot

S.J.R. No. 24

1 shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the
2 proposition: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the
3 issuance of general obligation bonds for projects relating to 4 facilities of corrections institutions, youth corrections
5 institutions, and mental health and mental retardation institutions
6 and for the expansion of statewide law enforcement facilities."

FISCAL NOTE

May 25, 1989

TO: Honorable Allen R. Hightower, Chair      In Re: House Committee Substitute
Committee on Corrections                      for Senate Joint
House of Representatives                      Resolution No. 24
Austin, Texas

FROM: Jim Oliver, Director

In response to your request for a Fiscal Note on House Committee Substitute for Senate Joint Resolution No. 24 (proposing a constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping corrections institutions, youth corrections institutions, statewide law enforcement facilities, and mental health and mental retardation institutions) this office has determined the following:

The resolution proposes a constitutional amendment which, if adopted, would authorize the issuance of $400 million in general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new corrections institutions, mental health and mental retardation institutions, youth corrections institutions and statewide law enforcement facilities and for major repair and renovation of existing facilities of those institutions. The proposed amendment would be submitted to voters on November 7, 1989.

The cost of publication of the resolution to the State is estimated to be $60,000.

The resolution would be implemented by legislation such as Senate Bill No. 558 with fiscal implications as follows:

The probable cost of implementing the provisions of the bill during each of the first five years following passage is estimated as follows:

Fiscal Year	Probable Debt Service Payments Out of the General Revenue Fund
1990	$ -0-
1991	37,500,000
1992	38,600,000
1993	38,600,000
1994	38,600,000

Similar annual costs would continue through the year 2010. Total payout for the bond issue would be approximately $809,665,000.

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

Criminal Justice Policy Impact Statement: No change in the sanctions applicable to adults convicted of felony crimes is anticipated.
